 - In French or Dutch or German, without appointment. (List of centres and opening hours <http://www.goca.be/fr/p/centres-d%27examens>. Price: 15€)
 - In English: only with approved translator and mandatory appointment with the exam centre – additional cost: (At least: 50€)
- Practice lessons: 20 hours mandatory minimum (10 times 2 hours) to obtain your certificate (saying you're able to drive alone): 980€

2. Formalities for obtaining the temporary license (18 years minimum)!

- Go to your municipality with your Belgian ID card, your request for a temporary license (= result of your theory exam), your certificate from the driving school.
- The date of delivery starts the training period.

3. Training period (18 years minimum!)

- During the training period the candidate may be accompanied by two persons, aged 26 years minimum and owner of a valid (Belgian or European) driving license since 8 years.
- He is not allowed to drive from 22h till 6h the next morning on Fridays, Saturdays, Sundays, legal holidays and the day before a legal holiday.
- The temporary license is only valid in Belgium.
- An « L » sign is mandatory, commercial transport of goods is not allowed, neither is a trailer allowed.

4. Practice exam in order to obtain the final driving license

The candidate may present himself after 3 months of mandatory training:

- with his own vehicle, accompanied by a mentor aged 26 years minimum and owner of a valid (Belgian or European) driving license since 8 years.
- with the driving school (car and monitor) (80€)

In both cases: to be paid at the exam centre: 36€

Optionally, translator services: (50€)

A preparation course (2h) is highly recommended, but remains optional. (98€)

A candidate who fails twice the practice exam will (by law) have to take 6h driving school before being allowed to take another exam.

Remark: all costs are mentioned including exam fees, translator services. A price between brackets means it's an optional item. Regarding temporary licenses delivered before 3/2/2014 the old rules still are applicable.
